

Think
Point

Manifestation of Career

Exercise 3: The Medieval Period

Please use your notebook to answer these questions

1. The thinking that work was “drudgery” could have been result of the WATERTIGHT compartments into which medieval society was divided and the near absence of the possibility for OCCUPATIONAL mobility.
2. Despite the oppressive social order workers’ security was safeguarded to some extent by GUILDS.
3. By establishing STANDARDS for the quality of work, guilds protected the rights of both the WORKER and the CONSUMER.
4. The APPRENTICESHIP SYSTEM is a critical milestone in the history of work because it provides for the TRAINING of a new generation of the PRACTITIONERS of a trade or profession.
5. The freedom of CHOOSING an apprenticeship was almost unknown.
6. In addition to learning the skills of the trade apprenticeships instilled in the novice the importance of working to STANDARDS, being CONSISTENT and always aiming for the highest QUALITY.
7. The invention of THE EYEGLASS tells us that human experiences were being written down and that READING material existed.
8. The association of SPECIFIC tools to specific occupations contributed to the emergence of occupational IDENTITY.